ANACORTES-SIDNEY FERRY ASSURED

Will Give New Avenue For Automobile Traffic
Important Announcement to Island Transportation

An automobile ferry from Anacortes to Sidney, in order to serve Victoria, will be an established fact by May. It will make one round trip daily from Monday to Friday and two trips daily on Saturday and Sunday. The fare as fixed under the agreement will not exceed $16 for the round trip for each car and five passengers accompanying it.

This welcome news, the fruition of long negotiations, is brought by Geo. I. Warren, Secretary of the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, on his return from Anacortes. He spent the week-end there completing details as a result of it is announced that the Harvester King, owned by Captain Harry Crosby and W. H. Kasch, which they purchased for that purpose from the Port Stanley Kelp Reduction Company, will be operated in the service.

The run from Anacortes to Sidney will occupy three hours and the cost of transportation of cars will be a substantial reduction on the present cost via Port Angeles to this port.

The Anacortes City Council has arranged for alterations of the ferry slip, and the housing of immigration and Customs officials, in view of the inauguration of the service.

Mr. Warren, who has spent a considerable time on this project, looks for it to bring many automobile parties to Vancouver Island, which have hitherto not included the Island part of the Georgian Circuit in their Summer itinerary.

TWO HOCKEYISTS OF REGINA OVERSEPT IN VANCOUVER

Vancouver, March 9.—It was learned this afternoon that two of Regina's crack hockey players, "Spunk" Sparrow and F. R. Moran, missed the train this morning and they will be unable to leave until 8.30 to-night. If the train arrives in Regina on time they will get in at 9 p. m. Saturday. As a result of their strenuous work last night, the boys overslept.

VOTE ON LIQUOR IN ONTARIO URGED

Moderation League Wants Referendum on Control

Toronto, March 9.—Petitions asking for less stringent legislation to regulate the sale of liquor were presented yesterday to the Ontario Government by the Moderation League of Ontario, whose suggestions included a wisely-devised licensing of individuals under Government control, the treatment of those unable to take care of themselves as patients instead of criminals and the formation of a voluntary organization similar to the "Blue Ribbon" Army of Great Britain, whereby all available energies and funds may be devoted to the promotion of true temperance by education and example.

The league further asked that an expression of opinion on the question of Government control be secured.

NO FURTHER TRADE CONCESSIONS PLANNED IN RUSSIA

Moscow, March 9.—Soviet Russia's economic retreat has ended and will go no farther in concessions to capitalism," Nikolai Lenin told the congress of metal workers in a brief speech discussing the Genoa Conference and Russia's internal problems.

Simultaneously Leonid Krassin, in an interview with the newspaper Izvestia, declared that Soviet Russia would not abandon her control of foreign trade.

PERRY SCHEME IS GAINING GROUND

Will Come Before Council After Estimates Finished

Alderman R. W. Perry's plan for levying a city tax on incomes will be brought before the City Council again as soon as the annual estimates have been completed, it was announced at the City Hall to-day. The Council will then be asked to decide definitely whether it is in favor of the scheme or not.

A powerful party in the Council—possibly a majority of aldermen—are now in favor of the Perry plan, which is regarded by them as the real solution of the city's taxation problem. Alderman Perry, it is understood, wishes the Council to endorse the principle of his scheme and is prepared to agree to changes in the actual details. That is, he will not insist absolutely on the scale of taxation which he proposes—over ten per cent on all incomes over $1,000 for people who are not paying other city taxes. That in his opinion this is a fair tax but he is willing to agree to reasonable alterations to get the principle of a city income service tax established.

The idea is simply to get revenue from people who are not paying any taxes now but who are enjoying all the city services free," Alderman Perry explained to-day.

British Secretary for India Resigned To-day

London, March 9.—Edwin Samuel Montagu, the Secretary for India, tendered his resignation to-day and it was accepted.

The resignation was announced in the House of Commons by Austen Chamberlain, the Government leader, who assigned no reason for the Secretary's action.

Before making the announcement, Mr. Chamberlain said he understood the telegram sent to Secretary Montagu from the Government of India, setting forth the feeling in India regarding the resignation.

Mr. Montagu defended himself by declaring the Government's policy was maintenance of the integrity of the Empire, coupled with the greatest opportunity for the development of full self-government in India.

DELEGATIONS FROM IRELAND TO U. S.

Free Staters and Valera Group to Tour

Dublin, March 9.—Pierce Beasly, a vigorous supporter of the Anglo-Irish Treaty and political dissenter with Eamon de Valera, heads the delegation of leading advocates of the Irish Free State who will leave for the United States on the liner Aquitania next Saturday. They are to put the case for the treaty before the Irish sympathizers in the United States. Beasly left Dunlaoghaire last night for England and will be joined in its principal cities by James O'Mara, former Sinn Féin agent in the United States, and by Sean Maccaellie, a member of the Dublin Corporation.

Many Speeches.

The mission has been undertaken at the request of the Provisional Government. Its members expect to stay about six weeks in the United States and will speak in its principal cities in behalf of the Irish Free State.

Beasly was director of army publicity during the Irish rebellion and still holds rank as commandant-general. He recently has been publicity agent at the army headquarters at Beggar's Bush. O'Mara was a director of elections in the Sinn Féin campaign in 1918 and visited the United States with de Valera.

The Freeman's Journal, which is the authority for the statement that the Valera supporters are reported to be sending a rival mission, which also may possibly sail on the Aquitania, says that J. J. O'Keeffe, former "Minister of Education" in the Dail and editor of the Catholic Bulletin, and Austen Stack, former "Minister of Home Affairs" in the Dail Eireann, have applied for passports to the United States and intend to sail at the first possible moment.

The London Mirror is responsible for the report that Eamon de Valera may soon visit the United States to arouse sympathy for his cause.

BANK CLEARINGS.

The bank clearings in Vancouver and New Westminster for the week ending March 7 were $12,938,461 and $456,707 respectively. The corresponding week of last year showed figures totalling for Vancouver $13,364,094, and New Westminster $625,072.

NOW TRY TO LURE GHOST TO HOUSE

Nova Scotia MacDonalds, Who Fled, Return Home

Wraith Did Not "Get Funny" With Professor

Caledonia Mills, N. S., March 9.—Antigonish folk are beginning to believe the notorious ghost that used to scare people in this valley must have given up noise-making during Lent.

Again last night nothing happened in the home Alex. MacDonald and his family deserted because they thought it haunted. All night Dr. Walter Franklin Prince, New York scientist who came here to investigate the ghost story, lay with one eye open waiting for the wraith to try to get funny with him. He did not hear sound or feel or see anything peculiar.

To-night—the third one since Dr. Prince arrived in search of the ghost—everything possible will be done to make the eerie visitor feel perfectly at home in the hope that he will not be able to resist the temptation to have a little fun. MacDonald and his wife and their adopted daughter, Mary Ellen, are (Concluded on page 15.)

DIME SAID OVER TWENTY YEARS

Incident of Collection for Save the Children Fund

Among the gifts of yesterday there came a ten cent piece black with age. It had been kept for over twenty years in remembrance of its first little owner. A note told the pathetic story. "Only a ten cent piece, and for many years kept in a gray plaster elephant's hollow inside, because when I was bright and new my little master said he would keep me always. Take me now and use me. Perhaps my worth may bring a slice or two of bread for some hungry little boy and my master has long ago ceased to need me. I hope many more ten cent pieces will join me to help feed the little ones in Russia. Cliffr's silver coin, 1898." The little fellow who brought this gift also brought one from himself, $1.20, mostly copper, with Willie's love for a hungry little boy in Russia.

The Save the Children Fund is pledged to feed 250,000 children of the Volga and save them from the horrors of famine. All money goes direct by cable to London, the headquarters of the fund, as is one of the most economically administered funds ever known. Gifts may be sent by mail to the treasurer, Colonel Dorne Ross, 513 Central Building, Victoria, to Rev. William Stevenson, secretary, 1221 Fernwood Road, or (Concluded on page 4.)

EUROPE TO FEEL U. S. PRESSURE

Refusal to Attend Genoa Conference Explained

British Prepared to Proceed With Programme

Washington, March 9.—Refusal of the United States to participate in the Genoa Conference may be viewed as the first step in a campaign of "economic pressure" to promote economic rehabilitation of Europe. It was said to-day by a high official of the American Government. It should not be regarded, this official said, as an indication of the desire of the United States to hold aloof from the grave problems confronting European nations.

London, March 9.—The decision of the United States not to participate in the Genoa Conference will not affect the date of or the plans for the conference as far as Great Britain is concerned, it was stated officially to-day.

The American refusal was no surprise to official circles, where the realization exists, it was said, that efforts to reconstruct the results of the Washington Conference by the ratification of the various conference treaties are engaging the American government's attention primarily at present. It is the British belief that other nations invited to attend the Genoa Conference will be present.

While it is known that Russia desired American representation, it is not thought likely she will risk losing her long-sought-for opportunity to re-enter the conference of the powers by declining to take part in the Genoa gathering.

The Pall Mall Gazette and Globe says:

"The United States gives very disappointing support to those endeavoring to make real, constructive progress in the restoration of Europe's economic life—a task of deeper importance than the mere activities of a soup kitchen."

The Evening News says:

"The people of the United States and also those of Europe are to be congratulated upon the decision of the United States. The American official announcement needs to be read between the lines. When they are written by an American so able and considerate as Secretary Hughes, they need, besides, to be taken very seriously, but more should not be read into them than they contain. It is to be hoped that pending their final evaporation our Downing Street dispatches will not state or insinuate that the United States has turned its back upon Europe because it does not intend to be represented at Genoa."

Any attempts of that kind might encourage American statesmen to turn their backs upon Europe."

"The Americans," The Evening News continues, "can not understand why other peoples whose social systems are still comparatively intact, should want to rub shoulders at the conference table with the zealous criminals who have in Russia carried Bolshevism to its logical development in famine and cannibalism."

RESENTED REMONSTRANCE

Hop Lee, a Chinese storekeeper, had a surprise last evening when attending to his store at 745 Yates Street. At 9.45 o'clock a man entered and took a packet of cigarettes. Hop Lee protested, whereupon the intruder broke two bags of pop corn on his head and departed.

OPENING SESSION BRILLIANT EVENT

Galleries of Chamber in Ottawa Crowded To-day

Canada's Fourteenth Parliament Now at Work

Ottawa, March 9.—(Canadian Press)—With pomp and display, Canada's Fourteenth Parliament was formally opened by the Governor-General this afternoon. In its brilliance, the scene in the Senate Chamber, where the speech from the throne was read, was strikingly different from that of yesterday. Then, beyond Senators on the floor and members of the House standing at the bar, there were few in the chamber. To-day the galleries were packed. The chamber was alight with uniforms, with the soft and varied colors of attractively-gowned ladies, while in the front rows the red and ermine robes of judges of the Supreme Court.

Guns Boomed.

It was three o'clock when the Governor-General entered the Senate Chamber. He was escorted by a detachment from the Princess Louise Dragoon Guards under the command of Lieutenant Charles Olmstead. In front of the Parliament Buildings the Governor-General's Footguards formed a guard of honor.

The Governor-General entered the building by the Senate entrance, for by a curious fiction, the main entrance, opened yesterday for the first time, had been ruled within the precincts of the Commons. The hall, through which he passed, was bedecked with palms and flowering plants.

The Commons.

The members of the Commons meanwhile had gathered in their own chamber. A few minutes later the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod appeared and after three knocks on the door entered the Commons chamber, summoning the members to the chamber of the Senate. Preceded by their elected Speaker, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, and the sergeant-at-arms, bearing the mace across his arms in symbol that the choice of Speaker had not yet been approved, the members filed down the corridor to the Senate, where they took their place before the bar. Here Mr. Lemieux informed the Governor-General yesterday the Commons had chosen him as its Speaker.

"The House of Commons," he said in the old formula, "have elected me their Speaker, though I am but little able to fulfill the important duties thus assigned to me. If, in the performance of those duties, I should at any time fall into error, I pray that the fault may be imputed to me and not to the Commons, whose servant I am."

Empty Formality.

The Governor-General, through the Speaker of the Senate, then formally approved the election of Rodolphe Lemieux—an approval which has now become nothing but a formality, for an approval has not been withheld since that in the Dominion has not met the Parliament of the Dominion for the first time since my arrival in Canada and avail myself of your assistance and voice in carrying out the important duties of King has entrusted to me as his representative. It is indeed a great privilege to be called upon to administer the affairs of Canada and to associate myself with you in the work you are about to begin.

"Our Dominion has not escaped the world-wide economic disturbance and industrial depression, but has suffered less from it than have other countries. Keen observers of the business barometer feel that the worst is about over and that at an early date we may look for a substantial revival of activity."

Relief.

"In many parts of Canada continued depression of business naturally has resulted in a much larger degree than usual, the misfortune of unemployment. While of the opinion that unemployment relief is fundamentally a municipal and provincial responsibility, my Government has felt that as conditions have arisen in a measure out of the late war, they would be justified in continuing for the period of the winter months an expedient of supplementing by grants from the Federal Treasury the relief contributions of the provinces and alleviating actual distress."

Farm Produce.

"The decline in prices of farm produce in 1921, as compared with the prices of previous years, has seriously affected agriculture in many parts of Canada. The ill effects of this inevitable deflation have been emphasized by restricted markets and the absence of any corresponding reduction in the cost of production. While improved methods of culture, grading and storage of farm crops in some parts, and greater diversification in others, would materially better conditions, it is apparent that adequate markets and marketing facilities and reduced transportation and production costs lie at the root of the problem. Recognizing such to be the case, my advisers have lost no time in seeking to gain more favorable conditions of sale and marketing for the products of the farm. Communications have been opened with the authorities of other countries looking to an extension of trade and a widening of Canadian markets, and conferences have been arranged between the railway authorities with respect to the reduction of rates upon basic commodities."

PORT COQUITLAM COUNCIL HALTS

No More Outlay Until Policy Framed

Municipal Inspector Is to Lead a Hand

Port Coquitlam, B. C., March 9.—With the exception of $225 ordered to be paid certain storekeepers, the City Council last night decided to suspend payment of accounts, staff and school teachers' salaries and employees' wages until Municipal Inspector Baird had over and helped it to frame a definite financial policy.

The inspector wrote that he would visit the city as soon as possible.

Alderman Keith deplored the rapid disappearance of $15,000 of the $25,000 loan. Eleven thousand dollars had gone to pay off the bank overdraft. The Council had only $10,000 left and he felt that a very large touch that credit on account of the coupons due in June.

Alderman Routley said the Council had the assurance of another $5,000, and he thought it might pay the school salaries.

Changes in Tariff And an Immigration Policy Are Planned

Canadian Government's Programme As Announced At Opening Session of Parliament To-day Includes Extension of Trade.

Ottawa, March 9.—(Canadian Press)—In the Speech from the Throne, read by the Governor-General at the formal opening of Parliament this afternoon, the Liberal Government announced its legislative programme for the session.

The speech referred to the fact that Canada had not escaped the world-wide industrial depression, but expressed the opinion that observers of the business barometer "feel that the worst is about over, and that at an early date we may look for a substantial revival of industrial activity."

In this regard, it spoke of the unemployment measures already undertaken by the Government. It announced further that:

1. Communications have been opened with other countries for an extension of Canadian trade and the widening of Canadian markets.

2. Conferences have been arranged between the railway authorities with respect to a reduction of rates on basic commodities.

3. It is intended at an early date to co-ordinate the Government-owned railway systems with a view to increased efficiency and economy.

4. An immigration policy will be adopted to attract new settlers.

5. Parliament will again be consulted regarding re-establishment and medical treatment of returned soldiers.

6. Negotiations have been opened with the prairie provinces for transfer of the natural resources.

7. A bill will be introduced concerning the Department of Defence.

8. The treaties adopted at the Washington Disarmament Conference will be submitted to Parliament for ratification.

9. Changes will be made in the customs tariff.

The speech further indicated that representatives from Canada will attend the Genoa Economic Conference and that Canadian representatives will be appointed to any United States representatives on the question of mail communication.

A Privilege.

"I desire on this occasion," said the Governor-General, reading the Speech from the Throne, "to assure you that it is with great satisfaction that I meet the Parliament of the Dominion for the first time since my arrival in Canada and avail myself of your assistance and voice in carrying out the important duties of King has entrusted to me as his representative. It is indeed a great privilege to be called upon to administer the affairs of Canada and to associate myself with you in the work you are about to begin."

"Our Dominion has not escaped the world-wide economic disturbance and industrial depression, but has suffered less from it than have other countries. While of the opinion that unemployment relief is fundamentally a municipal and provincial responsibility, my Government has felt that as conditions have arisen in a measure out of the late war, they would be justified in continuing for the period of the winter months an expedient of supplementing by grants from the Federal Treasury the relief contributions of the provinces and alleviating actual distress."

"You will be invited to consider the expediency of making some changes in the customs tariff. While there are details of revision, the consideration of which will require time and care that are not at present available, there are features of the tariff which it is felt may properly be dealt with during the present session."

Railways.

"In order that Government ownership and operation of our national railways, now extending through every province of Canada, may be given a fair trial under the most favorable conditions, it is intended at an early date to co-ordinate the Government-owned system in the manner best calculated to increase efficiency and to effect economies in addition, maintenance and operation. ## STRONG MEASURES IN SOUTH AFRICA

Government Mobilizes Artillery to End Strike Disorders

Johannesburg, March 9.—The Government, determined to end the present situation created by the gold miners' strike, to-day mobilized artillery, light horse and other units to reinforce the police. The public also was warned that aeroplanes would be used in case of necessity.

At Germiston last night a band of raiders marched into the Primrose Mine and intimidated the workers. A fight followed, in which two natives were killed, and the manager of the mine, with several others, including police, were wounded.

OBITUARY RECORD

The death occurred yesterday morning, at the family residence, 1523 Amelia Street, of Mary Ellen Allen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Allen. Funeral service will be held at the Thomson Funeral Home at 1 p. m. Saturday, March 11. Rev. F. A. P. Chadwick will officiate.

The death occurred on Monday at Los Angeles, of Mrs. Hazel Trenchard, daughter of Mrs. F. J. Morrison, Gorge Road. The remains are being brought to Victoria for interment.

The death occurred on Wednesday at her residence, 450 Granville Avenue, of Annie Phillips, aged 82 years. The late Mrs. Phillips had been a resident of Esquimalt for the past eight years, and had many friends who will regret to hear of her demise. Private funeral service will be held at the residence on Saturday at 1 p. m. Arrangements are with the Thomson Funeral Home.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Margaret Fairfull, whose death occurred last Sunday at the family residence, 1412 Pendergast Street, took place yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock from the family residence, Rev. W. L. Macrae taking charge of the service and delivering an impressive address. Rev. Mr. Smith assisted. There were many beautiful floral tributes and a large gathering of sorrowful friends. The hymns sung were "Abide With Me" and "Jesus, the Very Thought of Thee." Interment was at Ross Bay, the pallbearers being W. A. Smith, J. A. Grant, G. C. Jones, W. E. Ditchburn, R. Matheson and D. Y. Givens.

LITERARY NOTES.

Mr. W. Everard Edmunds of Edmonton has published a pamphlet entitled "The Natural Resources Question," a plea for the completion of Alberta's statue as a Province of Canada. The writer gives a review of the whole question in so far as his province is concerned and declares that the time was never more opportune than to-day to consider it.

At Germiston last night a band of raiders marched into the Primrose Mine and intimidated the workers. A fight followed, in which two natives were killed, and the manager of the mine, with several others, including police, were wounded.

A volume of original verse is being prepared by a few students of the University of British Columbia, and a limited number of copies will be available for purchase by subscription. Publication will be about March 8. Subscriptions should be forwarded to Miss Phyllis Mackay, 967 Tenth Avenue West, Vancouver.

JACK OF ALL SPORTS.

Although the man who dabbles a little in all sorts of things, whether it be in trade or in sport, is usually master of none, this cannot truthfully be said of B. Howard Baker, the popular goalkeeper of Chelsea.

During the summer months he takes part in all kinds of sports. He has played cricket so well for the Liverpool club that the committee of the Lancashire County are giving him a trial next season. Water-polo is a game which he took up only last season, but he has proved himself so skilful that he now stands every chance of becoming England's water-polo goalkeeper.

Tennis is another pastime in which he is expert, and in the Olympic Games of 1920 he represented his country at throwing the javelin.

CASE IS PUT AT FOOT OF THE LIST

Liquor Appeal in Vancouver; Ottawa to Be Notified

Vancouver, March 9.—Failure to notify the Minister of Justice of the appeal of Rex vs. Gold Seal, Ltd., in which important constitutional issues will be raised, resulted in an adjournment of the hearing of that case by the Court of Appeal and its standing to the foot of the list. Appellant's counsel, H. S. Tobin, had got no further than outlining the case, mentioning E. P. Davis, K. C., would question the constitutionality of the Government Liquor Act, when the Chief Justice interrupted.

Colonel Tobin, appearing for the Attorney-General of British Columbia, stated he had instructed the Ottawa authorities and understood the Minister of Justice would take no part in the appeal.

Mr. Justice Martin was not satisfied with this explanation and asked that a telegram from Ottawa be produced. After further discussion the case was ordered stood to the foot of the list.

The appeal is from the judgment of Chief Justice Hunter quashing a conviction by Magistrate Shaw, who imposed a fine of $1,000 after finding the company guilty of an infraction of section 26 of the Government Liquor Act. The offence was unlawfully selling liquor and the point involved is whether the sale took place in Vancouver, from where orders were accepted, or in Calgary, from where delivery took place.

WHERE YOU MUST NOT SMOKE

In many of the American States women are forbidden to use face powder, or rouge, or lip-salve. Laws also exist—and, what is more, are enforced—against wearing ear-rings, against short skirts and against long hairpins.

It is an offence in Massachusetts to play cards for money even with friends in one's own house. In Kansas smoking in the streets or other places is forbidden, and the prohibition even extends to travelers if they chance to step out of the train in which they are journeying on to the platform.

Yet will all this, crime, real crime, be more prevalent in the United States than in any European country. More murders are committed in a year in Chicago than in the whole of the British Isles. In 1912 New York had six times as many homicides—murder and manslaughter—as London had—Tit-Bits.

COMMONS ADJOURNS TILL NEXT MONDAY

Debate on Opening Speech Will Start Then

Ottawa, March 9.—(Canadian Press)—Immediately after the return of the members of the House of Commons from the Senate chamber this afternoon the first two items of business involved the assertion of the historic rights of the popular chamber. In the first instance the Speaker announced that he had asserted those rights before the Governor-General and that they had been admitted by the representatives of the crown.

In the second place, Premier King introduced a bill respecting oaths of office to assert the right of the Commons to transact business before considering the Speech from the Throne. This bill is introduced at the opening of every session of Parliament for this purpose, but never gets beyond the first reading.

Premier King moved that the Speech from the Throne be the first order of business on Monday. Right Hon. Arthur Meighen said that though it was customary, he had not been given intimation that the debate would be adjourned until Monday.

Mr. King replied that he was sorry he had overlooked giving notice to the Leader of the Opposition, but he had assumed that Mr. Meighen would have expected such a course, as it was in accordance with the usual practice of Parliament.

Mr. Meighen replied that it had not been the invariable practice of Parliament. The late Government had got down to business earlier.

"The Leader of the Opposition will have ample time to discuss all matters," replied Premier King.

J. Coughlan & Sons, Ltd. steel delivered on sight ..... 175,000
City Engineer's estimate for erection ..... 75,000
Messrs. Coughlan & Sons pointed out that these figures showed that their tender was the lowest for the complete bridge, while the Canadian Bridge Co. was lowest for the steel delivered. Coughlan & Sons' erection price is $37,500 and the Canadian Bridge Co. erection price is $53,500.

In regard to the impression that by accepting the Canadian Bridge Company tender for delivery of steel on the site it would be possible to obtain an erection price in the neighborhood of $37,500, or alternatively have the erection carried out by day labor for about this figure, it was pointed out by Coughlan & Sons' representative that their price for supplying the material was based on doing a much larger proportion of the work in their own shop than the Canadian Bridge Co. would do. This is due to Coughlan & Sons' plant being so favorably located for transportation purposes, as they would be in a position to transport the bridge from their shops to the site on scows in much larger units and erect them with much less handling. It was also pointed out to the Council that if the Canadian Bridge Co. were awarded the contract for the supply of steel they would find it very difficult to get anyone to give a price on erection, as no bridge company would erect another bridge company's steel, and, of course, the erection of the bridge is always the most speculative and hazardous portion of a bridge contract. It was stated that if the contract were awarded to Coughlan & Sons, Ltd., the whole of the contract price, with the exception of the cost of the raw steel, would be spent in the Province, and mean the employment of three hundred odd men for about four months, whereas if the contract were awarded the Canadian Bridge Company, only the cost of the erection would be spent in this Province and the city would not in any case save money but would be taking a very serious risk of being put to considerable further expense. It was also pointed out that specifications for the bridge tenders called for a completed price only and it was only at the very last moment that Coughlan & Sons learned from the City Engineer that a price was required for the delivery of the steel alone, though no details were given as to where or how the delivery was to be made. It was claimed that, in fact, practically no time was given for considering anything but the original specifications.

The desirability of awarding the bridge contract to the Coughlan firm, so that the work will be done on the Coast and not in eastern Canada will be impressed upon the Council by some of its members shortly when the aldermen meet to decide their bridge policy in the light of the $50,000 shortage in bridge funds.

SLOW TRAINS.

The little suburb of Mudville cannot by any stretch of imagination be considered a busy place. The railway upholds the reputation of the village.

A visitor to Mudville realized this recently after waiting four hours for an overdue train. He approached the porter.

"Isn't the train coming soon?" he inquired mildly. Just at that moment a dog came trotting up the line, and a glad smile illuminated the porter's face.

"Oh, yes, sir," replied the official; "it'll be getting here now. Here comes the engine-driver's dog."—Tit-Bits.

The economy axe was being wielded with full force. Juniors were being fired by the score, but there was one who was too obviously smart for anyone to point out why he should be dismissed.

However, the chief of the department sent for him one day and complained that his reports were too exhaustive.

The chief said: "Now, look here, Mr.—er—what I mean to say is that—er—these reports are too involved in their composition. They should be written in such a way that the most ignorant could understand. So that—unless—"

But, before he could say any more the junior interrupted with: "May I ask precisely what it is you don't understand, sir?"—Tit-Bits.

H. BOTTOMLEY

AGAIN IN COURT

London Charge Is Unlawful Conversion of Funds

London, March 9.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Horatio Bottomley, M. P., was in court again yesterday as a result of his Victory Bond Club operations during the war. He appeared to answer a charge by the public prosecutor of unlawful conversion of £5,000 and was unsuccessful in his application for an adjournment.

The prosecuting counsel, outlining the case, produced Bottomley's circular, declaring that every penny sent to the bond club would be invested in Victory Bonds without deduction. It was stated that absolute security would be placed with the trustees.

"It seems to me a fair observation," added counsel, "that anybody of business experience would see that this was nonsense and that it was absolutely impossible to carry on the scheme on the terms Bottomley proposed."

He added that in two weeks alone £25,000 was received by the club, mostly in small sums. Counsel alleged that of £20,000 paid by Bottomley into his private account from this trust money £5,000 was devoted to the upkeep of his racehorses.

"Rubbish," exclaimed Bottomley. Counsel declared that trustees were never appointed from the beginning to the end and that this huge sum of money was dealt with by Bottomley without a check from any one. No auditors were appointed either. Perhaps it was fortunate for Bottomley added counsel, that there were no accounts to audit.

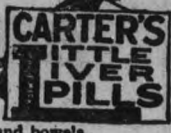

The case was adjourned for a week.

INDIAN TAXATION PROBLEM AND ARMY

Criticism of Outlay; Warning by Gen. Rawlinson

Delhi, India, March 8.—During the course of an extensive speech in the Legislative Assembly yesterday in reply to criticisms of military expenditure, General Lord Rawlinson, commander-in-chief of the British troops in India, said that despite efforts to reduce the expenses of the army, the rise in food prices, clothing and rail charges had swallowed up all the economies.

He declared no further reduction of the army was now possible on account of the sedition propaganda which was being circulated among the population.

Alluding to Waziristan, in the southeastern part of Afghanistan, General Rawlinson said the only solution of the difficult problem was the domination of the country by military force. He declared that under the reform scheme India was marching towards dominion status and self-government, but he warned the Assembly that it was dangerous to gamble with the efficiency of the army when an hereditary enemy was sitting on the frontier. General Rawlinson assured his hearers with much emphasis that the internal state of India gave cause for serious anxiety, and the ability of the Government to maintain law and order, he feared, would be seriously tested at no distant date. His speech created a distinct sensation.

A dispatch to The London Times from Delhi, India, dated Tuesday, emphasized the seriousness of the extent to which the military budget of sixty-two crores (a crore is equivalent to 10,000,000 rupees) had been criticized in the Assembly during the past two days. The dispatch declared that the greatest statesmanship would be required by both sides "if tremendous clash on the old question of taxation and representation is to be avoided."

The statement of William Halley, Minister of Finance, in winding up the debate, to the effect that the Government was unable to consent to any reduction in the military estimate, was received with silence, as speaker after speaker had declared the House would not accept responsibility for the military budget.

In a solemn peroration, the dispatch added, Mr. Halley alluded to the temper of the House, and asked whether it had really come to the parting of the ways. The Minister of Finance said the Viceroy and the Government stood sincerely for reform, but that the avenue for a constitutional advance was that laid down by the Parliament.

SAYS UNEMPLOYED SENT TO TORONTO

Mayor States Other Parts of Canada Dumping Men

Toronto, March 9.—Toronto is apparently being used as a dumping ground into which the rest of Canada is pouring its unemployed. Mayor Maguire told the Board of Control yesterday that Colonel Morrison, of the D. S. C. R., had reported to him the arrival of fourteen men from Winnipeg. Civic authorities in that city had given them sandwiches and railway tickets and put them on a train for Toronto.

Colonel Morrison reported the action to the Federal Minister of Labor and when the latter proved skeptical, Colonel Morrison secured affidavits from the men to convince him.

"Not thirty per cent. of the men who are applying for relief at the local mission are Toronto men," said the mayor. "They are sending unemployed men here from everywhere."

JAMAICA PREFERENCE. Kingston, Jamaica, March 8.—The Legislative Council passed a tariff measure giving a preference of 25 per cent on goods imported from Canada and Great Britain, and of 50 per cent on Empire-manufactured cotton piece goods.

Vancouver, March 9.—By a vote of 51 to 45, the Vancouver Young Conservative Association last night declared its recognition of the services as party leader rendered by W. J. Bowser in this Province. The vote was on an amendment to a resolution calling for the resignation of Mr. Bowser. The amendment recognized that the Conservative leader had rendered great services to the party in the past. It went on to say that it was realized that a great number of people in the Province are not with us as they should be.

After some discussion a committee of eight was appointed to interview Mr. Bowser and discuss what should be done about the discontent which existed in some circles. This committee was asked to report back to a later meeting of the association.

On the amendment passed by a majority of eight, Messrs. Cosgrove and Whitaker moved that the action of the association be made unanimous. This met with the approval of the meeting.

The committee which will interview Mr. Bowser will consist of G. F. Chaffey, M. Cosgrove, C. W. Whitaker, A. L. Wright, K. Oxley, J. C. MacKinnon, B. J. G. Richards and R. L. Maitland.

IRISH DOCKYARD TO CONTINUE WORK. Dublin, March 9.—Evacuation of the Haulbowline dockyard by the British has been ordered temporarily stopped by the Provisional Government. This step is taken because of discontinuance of work at these yards would result in the immediate departure to England of a large number of skilled workers. It also would bring hurried unemployment to several hundred other unskilled men and would involve the scrapping of a valuable plant.

The question of its final evacuation is under consideration.

Telegraphers' Leader Supports Candidate in East Kootenay

Cranbrook, March 9.—Hon. J. H. King, Federal Minister of Public Works, was supported at his meeting here last night by Alderman Moir, local chairman of the Order of Railway Telegraphers, in his candidature in the riding of East Kootenay.

Mr. Moir contended that Dr. King's opponent on the Labor-Progressive ticket, H. M. Brundson, was running without the endorsement of the majority of labor and farmer voters in the constituency. Mr. Moir believed the election of Dr. King would be in the best interests of the riding and the country.

G. Spreull, acting for Mayor Genest, took the chair for the evening. Hon. James Murdoch, Minister of Labor, and Mrs. Mary Ellen Smith, M.P.P., spoke in support of Dr. King.

A STEP TOWARD CHURCH UNION

Anglican-Free Church Greetings at Liverpool

London, March 9.—(Canadian Press Cable)—The National Assembly of Free Church Councils at Liverpool yesterday witnessed a cordial exchange of greetings between the venerable Anglican bishop of the diocese and Rev. S. Chadwick, president of the Councils.

The bishop expressed confidence that the times never were more propitious for reunion, but the step in this direction must not be hurried, he said.

Mr. Chadwick, replying, said the bishop's greeting breathed the spirit of catholicity and Christian brotherhood and the heart of the Free Churches was set toward unity.

A resolution was adopted advocating church union.

The assembly also adopted resolutions favoring the strengthening of educational facilities and the adoption of unemployment remedies in the interests of the whole community.

MILLIONS WANTED IN AUSTRALIA

Increased Population Needed, Says State Premier

Barwell, of South Australia, Speaks in London

London, March 9.—(Canadian Press Cable)—Hon. H. W. Barwell, Premier of South Australia, who is visiting London, was entertained at luncheon yesterday at the Royal Colonial Institute. Premier Barwell said there might be a few people in Australia who talked of "cutting the painter," but they were either fools or traitors. Once cut the painter, he said, the doom of Australia as a part of the British Empire was sealed. They were a free state within a free commonwealth, but united by inseparable bonds of affection and good will.

The war had proved the identity of the interests of Great Britain and Australia, Premier Barwell said. Their only desire was to be a change, was in the direction of closer union.

Australia's greatest need was increased population, Premier Barwell said. They wanted millions of immigrants. Then Australia would be one of the great countries in the world. Premier Barwell said 3,000 letters had been received in two days from boys prepared to go to Australia in connection with a scheme to send out boys to work on the farms.

Premier Barwell said 3,000 letters had been received in two days from boys prepared to go to Australia in connection with a scheme to send out boys to work on the farms.

FRIGHTENED!

"Every morning I woke up, I felt that something terrible was going to happen."

Writes Mrs. M. and she goes on to say, "I wonder if any other woman ever had such fits of depression as I had for over a year. I was so utterly despondent that if it had not been for my children, I believe I would have put an end to my life. Every day and every night was a nightmare. I dreaded going to bed because I lay awake most of the night. When I did sleep, I had the most dreadful dreams. I couldn't eat. I was completely run down—nothing interesting, nothing appealed to me. I consulted several doctors. They prescribed different remedies to build me up but these preparations didn't do me any good. Doctors told me I had a nervous breakdown. I was tired all the time. I felt every day that my strength was gradually leaving me. The least little exertion left me thoroughly tired out. I knew I was gradually wasting away. I felt I was going to die and I was so thoroughly miserable that I did not care whether I lived or not. And then I heard about Carnol and what a fine tonic it was. At first I refused to take it as I was sure it wouldn't do me any good. Finally I did try it with the most wonderful results. I am well and happy every minute of the day now. I eat heartily and sleep soundly. My friends won't believe that Carnol alone has done this for me. I am never despondent now and every day is a day of joy. What Carnol has done for me it will do for you."

Carnol is sold by your druggist and if you can conscientiously say, after you have tried it, that it is the best of all any good, return the empty bottle and he will refund your money. 2-122

SAID AGREEMENTS WERE BINDING

British Attitude on Cannes Financial proposals; Conference

Paris, March 9.—Sir Robert Horne, Chancellor of the British Exchequer, and Colonel J. A. Thomsen, Belgian Premier and Minister of Finance, enlivened the first conference of Finance Ministers of Great Britain, Italy, Belgium and France, according to to-day's newspapers. Roland W. Boyden was present as unofficial observer for the United States.

Sir Robert and M. Thomsen declared they considered the agreements reached August 13 last by the Allied financial commission and later revised at the Cannes conference as finally binding.

By these agreements, the first billion marks paid over by Germany to the Allies were to be divided between payments of the cost of the British army of occupation and the payments Belgium under the latter's priority claim.

The commission at that time also decided that the value of the Saar mines was to be reckoned as among the payments received by France before May 1.

Charles de Lasteyrie, French Minister of Finance, vigorously denied that these agreements of August 13 last were binding. He declared that none of them had been endorsed by the French Parliament and that France was under no obligation to submit to their validity.

The Italian delegates promptly seized France's objections as a chance to claim that an increased share be allotted Italy for the cost of her army of occupation.

POLICE DISPERSED CROWD IN CAIRO; SIX ON TRIAL. Cairo, March 8.—The trial by military court martial of six persons, mostly students, accused of conspiring to assassinate Premier Sarwat Pasha began to-day.

Minor demonstrations which have occurred for several days continued to-day when university students rushed through the streets with the apparent object of frightening shopkeepers into closing their shops. A crowd of natives joined in throwing stones and smashing windows, but they were dispersed by the police.

A traveller asked an Irish driver to give him a lift. "How much will you charge to take me to the town hall?" he inquired. "Well," said Pat, "the nearest man I ever knew gave me half a crown." —Tit-Bits.

HEART WOULD BEAT LIKE A TRIP HAMMER

Heart trouble has of late years become very prevalent. Sometimes a pain catches you in the region of the heart, now and then your heart skips beats, palpitates, throbs, or beats with such rapidity and violence you think it is going to burst.

You have weak and nervous spells, sinking sensations, are nervous, irritable and depressed, and if you attempt to walk upstairs or any distance you get all out of breath.

We know of no remedy that will do so much to make the heart regain strength and vigor, regulate its beat and restore it to a healthy normal condition as will

MILBURN'S HEART AND NERVE PILLS

Mrs. Chadwick, Delhi, Ont., writes: "I had palpitation of the heart, and the least exertion, such as going up stairs or up a hill, my heart would beat like a trip-hammer and at times I was dizzy-headed and had a sinking sensation as if my time were near."

A friend suggested I try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, so I procured three boxes, and by the time the first one was used I began to improve. In all I took six boxes, and now although in my 65th year I feel like a young girl; no dizziness or fainting, and can walk miles without fatigue. At time of sickness I weighed 120 lbs., now I weigh 150."

THE FIRST SESSION.

Political prophets confess to being baffled over the prospects of the first Session of the Fourteenth Parliament, formally opened this afternoon. In former years the first Session of a new Parliament has been uneventful, being confined to routine legislation and getting into shape for the more momentous proceedings of subsequent meetings. The present occasion, however, contains so many elements that are new in Canadian political history that it is difficult to say whether the Session will be characterized by the usual conditions which have existed in the past, or will be marked by developments of an exceptional or a sensational nature.

There are three strong parties in the House and no fusion has been established between any two of them. Although Mr. Meighen is the leader of the official Opposition, his followers number less than those who acknowledge the leadership of Mr. Crerar. The Progressives hold the balance of power, but, as there is much more in common between them and the Government, in a general sense, it may be expected that, subject to certain reservations, they will support Mr. King and his colleagues. These reservations, call for downward revision of the tariff, a continuation of the Government ownership of the railways now in the National system and the amendment of our banking laws.

There are powerful elements among the Quebec Liberals, particularly in Montreal, who are opposed to Government ownership of railways, tariff reduction and any changes in our legislation affecting banks, but what is not generally realized here is that there is a very strong group led by Mr. Lapointe which, in number, exceeds the element controlled from Montreal, that would support the policy in respect of these matters advocated by the Progressives and progressive Liberals. Moreover, Mr. Meighen's party necessarily must support the continuation of the railway policy which they themselves brought into operation, however much they may disagree with policies affecting the tariff and the banks propounded by their opponents. Hence, while there is no coalition Government, the administration must depend upon the support of the Progressives to carry through. There is one thing certain, however, and that is that it will require a pretty strong dose of reactionary legislation from the Government to provoke Mr. Crerar into using his influence to put Mr. King out and Mr. Meighen in.

ONLY COURAGE WANTED.

When the people of Victoria elected a new City Council last December they had a right to suppose that it would be fully capable of discharging all the duties which go with the running of a city's business and the interests of something less than forty thousand inhabitants. Nothing has transpired in the meantime that would in any way alter this obviously natural assumption and it ought not to be necessary to suggest that the Council would care to be guilty of interpreting its instructions in any other fashion. For this reason the idea of submitting a by-law in order that the people may re-affirm their mandate to the Council, and empower it still further to appeal for an expression of popular sentiment on any subject in which there might be the slightest demand for a display of business acumen, should be discouraged to the fullest extent. If any alderman feels that he is unable to accept the responsibility that goes with his office he should be ready to retire to private life. He cannot reasonably expect that the people want to be bothered with a lot of trifling details of civic government out of respect for an exaggerated view of democratic or responsible government. Every plebiscite taken must cost the people several hundreds of dollars that the public treasury can ill afford. The majority of our aldermen are surely plucky enough to act in accordance with their own judgment. If they make mistakes—and they cannot expect to escape them—they will have had the satisfaction of giving the city the benefit of their initiative. If the people want to remove them at the proper time the ballot box is always an effective means. But to appeal to the electorate on matters of small importance is to bespeak an interest similar to that displayed at the recent by-election.

UNFORTUNATE.

Although it looks as if the four-power Treaty will have a stormy passage in the United States Senate it can be taken for granted that the American people would be thoroughly disappointed if it were to be rejected. The suggestion that former President Wilson has allied himself with Senator Borah in order that the latter may be supplied with ammunition with which to obstruct the passage of the pact interjects a development that would appear to place the most ardent advocate of the League of Nations in a peculiarly anomalous position. Even if it shall be admitted that the arrangement in question is an alliance between four powerful nations—an arrangement in direct hostility to the traditional policy of the United States—it is also an undertaking that does away with a Treaty between the Occident and the Orient that prevented a limitation of armaments and automatically manufactured a sort of friction between the two great Anglo-Saxon peoples. Surely former President Wilson would consider this an international accomplishment that is worth while even though it falls short of his own idea of a prescription for the world's ills.

OUR FALLING TRADE.

The handful of peculiar economists who rejoiced at the failure of Mr. Fielding to open the door at Washington to a reciprocal arrangement with the United States must be cheered by the announcement of the tremendous drop in trade between Canada and her neighbor. For the seven months ending January 31 our commerce with the United States decreased by more than four hundred and twenty million dollars. Our exports dropped from $384,616,000 to $181,616,000, while our imports fell from $547,000,000 to $329,900,000. In the last ten months our trade with the United Kingdom dropped $150,000,000, so we have lost heavily in our commerce with our two largest countries.

It is absolutely imperative that Canada endeavor to stop this decline by taking advantage of every possible opportunity, because the alternative to that is greater unemployment, higher taxation and serious economic disability.

Curiously enough, the very few who profess relief over the outcome of Mr. Fielding's trip to Washington, do not attack his successful efforts to float a substantial loan in New York.

BOOTLEGGERS DE LUXE.

The convention of the bootleggers' association at Seattle appears to have been quite a success from the point of view of those engaged in the smuggling of liquor across the international boundary line and the sale of it after it gets there.

We presume that the idea of the convention was not only to obviate throat-cutting competition but also to give a standing to the callings of the bootlegger and smuggler which up to the present they do not seem to have had. Possibly, as a result of this interesting gathering new definitions of bootlegging and smuggling will take their places in the lexicon, although we are not sure whether these activities have been exalted to the dignity of a profession, an art or a science. The laws of both Canada and the United States, however, give them uglier designations.

Incidentally, it is worth remembering that while those on this side of the line who knowingly are the sources of supply for American smugglers and bootleggers, are not violating any Canadian Statute or code, they are, nevertheless, helping to break the law on the American side and are, in consequence, the confederates of potential convicts.

COLD COMFORT.

When ninety-four young Conservatives gathered together in Vancouver yesterday fifty-one voted in favor of Mr. Bowser's continued leadership and forty-three were of the opinion that he should be dropped. But to heal the breach that the narrow margin reveals it was proposed that the vote be made unanimous—and it was so ordered. The Leader of the Opposition has now the satisfaction of knowing that his services to his Party in British Columbia are recognized by a little more than half of the members of the Young Conservative Association of Vancouver who were present at last night's gathering. If he is the astute politician he would have us believe he would recognize the verdict of the younger element of his party as the writing on the wall. In any case it is small comfort for any parliamentary leader to be given the cold shoulder in a constituency which he has represented for nearly two decades. We wonder what the Kamloops Convention will have to say about it.

NOTE AND COMMENT

When is the leader of a political party not the leader of a political party? Ask the Young Conservatives of Vancouver.

The passage of the Irish Free State bill by such an overwhelming majority does not look much like an attempt on the part of the enemies of the Prime Minister to use any old trick to get him out of the way.

It looks as if the City of Victoria will have to accept a policy of conscription of domiciles when the Pacific Northwest Golf Tournament takes place next June. The invasion looks like being something near to two thousand visitors.

APPEAL FROM COURT'S AWARD IS DISMISSED

Vancouver, March 9.—The Court of Appeal, Mr. Justice Gauthier dissenting, dismissed the appeal of Frederick R. Kelly from a judgment of Judge Lampman finding him liable in the sum of $842 to Samuel Rainey for injuries sustained by the latter as the result of being run down by Kelly's automobile. The accident occurred November 28, 1920, on Burnside Road, Victoria, near the intersection of Dunedin and Douglas Streets.

Counsel were: Frank Higgins, K. C., for the appellant, and W. C. Moresby for the respondent.

HELP FOR STARVING RUSSIANS.

To the Editor:—I am glad to see the Times approve of the suggestion that the Dominion Government should move in the matter of succoring the starving Russians. Private energy and private generosity are unequal to the task. Relief must come, and come quickly, on a vast scale. It ever there was a case in which the saying is true that he gives twice who gives quickly, this is one. Gaunt Russia, stalks through snow-clad fields, a mass of victims by the tens of thousands.

Those who believe in Christ should give, as Sir Philip Gibbs has said, for Christ's sake. Those who do not, yet are men, and being men, should do nothing that is human foreign to them. By lending a generous helping hand in this hour of dire need, Canadians may win the goodwill of Russia for all the years that are to come.

ALEX. MACDONALD, Bishop of Victoria.

CANADIANS IN NEW YORK.

To the Editor:—The Canadian Club of New York is the centre of activity for Canadians living in New York and vicinity.

The club is constantly in receipt of calls for relief for veteran Canadian soldiers and other needy Canadians in New York. All worthy cases are being promptly cared for.

For instance: A few days ago a young Canadian girl from Nova Scotia, penniless and without friends in New York was found dead in a rooming house, having died from asphyxiation. The Canadian Club took charge of the body, gave her a respectable funeral which several of the members attended.

We are endeavoring to get in contact with Canadians in New York, not now members of the club, and request that those having relatives or friends living in New York City and vicinity, also New Jersey, communicate their names and addresses to the undersigned in order that they may be invited to enjoy the privileges and advantages which the club affords.

THOMAS D. NEELANDS, Chairman, Special Membership Committee, the Canadian Club of New York, Pershing Sq. and 42nd Street, New York City.

OUR TAXATION PROBLEM.

To the Editor:—The problem that has been agitating the people of Victoria for the past few years, is the ever-increasing amount of vacant property that has been reverting to the City owing to the non-payment of general taxes and local improvement assessments.

This problem, I take it, has given the citizens and City Councils more concern than any other problem, and the solution of the difficulty seemed lost in obscurity.

With the object of locating the primary cause of these reversions, I have been investigating the matter, and have done some exploring of past budgets of expenditures and revenues and brought the figures together so that a survey of the condition can be easily seen.

The Cause.

It is generally conceded that the chief cause of the reversions is the heavy tax charge on vacant lands, which has led to the belief that there is no reversionary interest in vacant lands for the so-called owner thereof, after the city's charge for taxes has been satisfied.

Each succeeding year has seen the City Council wrestle with the problem of keeping expenditures within income, and there seems to have been a great effort made to keep expenditures down and so keep a low tax levy.

It will be seen, however, by looking over the figures that are shown herewith, that in spite of these efforts the amount of taxes levied has continued to grow larger until in the year 1921 the amount levied is $226,850 greater than in the year 1917.

When a survey is made of the table of figures dealing with tax collections and levies, given herewith, it will be seen that in five years, 1917 to 1921, there has been levied $92,919.00 over and above the amount of money actually needed for the city's government, the explanation for this being that each year the Council has decided as the year progressed, not to make the expenditures they thought necessary at the time of making the estimates.

This means that the City has been operated for five years past at an average annual cost of $1,160,480, and not at $1,299,064, the average levied for the past five years.

I think it will be generally conceded that had the tax levy been kept down to the actual requirements (by this I mean the amount actually spent) there would have been a far larger percentage of taxes collected with a consequent less reversion of lands to the City.

One would feel justified in stating that had our tax levy been lighter, as our table shows could have been the case, a far greater number of taxpayers would have continued paying their taxes and been contented owners of their property, rather than losing their assets to the City.

It cannot be denied that to lose one's assets is not regarded by the average citizen as a desirable state of affairs, either for the loser or his neighbors. To do so and to cause a demoralizing feeling of dissatisfaction, and is one of the causes of the city's present depressed condition.

I am convinced that had a different course been pursued, and past councils decided at the time of making estimates to cover only the actual requirements of the year, and so keep the levy and rate as low as possible, there would have been a different story to tell, both as regards tax collections and reversions of lands.

The Remedy.

The thing mostly to be desired is to have our taxpayers paying in 100 per cent. of the amount necessary for the maintenance of the city's budget, and having partly diagnosed the primary cause of the present condition, it becomes necessary to consider the remedy.

The first thing is to eliminate all unnecessary expenditures, and having done so to form a correct estimate of necessary expenditures.

Secondly, to use all available sources of revenue, other than taxes on land, and so arrive at the minimum necessary to impose on reality.

Thirdly, to impose a tax on im-

Improvements. I suggest one-third of the present assessed value.

Fourthly, to levy a tax rate sufficient to cover only the actual requirements.

Fifthly, to offer relief to those taxpayers who are now in arrears. The relief I suggest to take the form of a deferred payment, such arrears to carry a nominal rate of interest. This relief to be given only to those taxpayers who are prepared to pay the taxes and the interest on arrears.

Those who are not prepared to go to usual tax sale. Relief also to be extended to those taxpayers operating under the 1917 and 1918 Relief Act.

Sixthly, a further revision of the city assessment and further equalization of lands and improvements, especially with regard to the sections of the city known as "semi-business" property.

Seventh, that an effort be made to reinstate in some manner those owners of properties that have reverted to the city.

If these measures are taken there should be very nearly, if not actually, 100 per cent. of the 1922 tax levy collected, as it must be apparent that if a taxpayer has so far evaded the tax sale hammer, he must be making a tremendous effort to retain his land.

Having been able to keep his head above water for so long a period, he will be glad to stand and receive, and see in it the opportunity of retaining his property which he has made such strenuous efforts to retain.

It must be admitted that a person having constantly before him the prospect of losing his investment is liable to have a more or less depressed feeling and this depression is bound to be reflected in our communal life. I feel confident that one of the greatest causes of Victoria's apathy is due to the tax situation, and the feeling of hopelessness and helplessness that has settled on its people.

This depression can, however, be easily shaken off, and the citizens go forward in a more hopeful mood to better things.

Reasons for Suggested Remedy.

1 and 2—A glance at the table of figures herewith, will show that too much tax has been levied in the past on land alone, and it would stand to reason that if a burden of 100 per cent. (the actual requirement) is too heavy, a heavier burden will be that much more difficult to carry.

3—The present system of taxing land only is causing vacant lands to revert to the city in an alarming manner (See my letter of March 4th, showing that nearly 30 per cent. of the vacant lots have already reverted, and improvements call for many services not required by vacant lands, and for which they should bear a fair part of the cost.

4—See reasons given for 1 and 2 above. If this system does not bring in the amount necessary to carry on, we must resort to borrowing to cover.

5—To give relief to those actually needing it and struggling to maintain their investment, and so bring about a condition mostly to be desired, that is a 100 per cent. collection of taxes annually.

6—That owing to legislation in the past our assessments have necessarily been unjust, and the time has arrived for correcting this condition.

7—That a contented, tax-paying property owner is more useful to the community than a dissatisfied person suffering from a feeling of loss.

After the Council succeeds in bringing about the above-mentioned remedial measures it should turn its attention to legislative matters and endeavor to get other sources of revenue allowed it by the Provincial Government.

Firstly, it would be well to get the power to put our trades license fees and business and professional tax on a reasonable basis.

Secondly, to seek power to levy some form of Service Tax, as suggested in Alderman Perry's proposals, which will come before the Council later in the year.

Thirdly, to endeavor to secure a greater measure of control by the tax levying authority, over the spending departments.

I do not suggest that there are not many other methods by which a better condition of affairs can be brought about, but these suggestions will, I think if acted upon, help to solve the present difficulties.

MOOSE HOSTS AT SUCCESSFUL BALL

Two Hundred Guests at Enjoyable Affair Last Night

The endowment ball staged by the Loyal Order of Moose in the Alexandria Hall last evening proved a brilliant affair. About 200 guests put in an evening of the most enjoyable and successful of the season.

The Mooseheart ceremony was put on at 10 p. m. by Bro. Dictator Copeland, and everyone stood for the space of a few moments whilst a prayer was offered for the orphan children at Mooseheart. Decorations and lights in the colors of the order were used to decorate the hall, producing a very pleasing effect.

Bro. H. C. Perry's 5-piece orchestra gave a splendid selection of music and the caterers, Messrs. Tighe & Wheeler, left nothing to be desired in regard to the supper arrangements.

The guests included Bro. The Hon. John Hart and Mrs. Hart and Bro. H. C. Hall, K. C., and Mrs. Hall. Cards were provided for those who did not dance. The evening's charge are to be complimented on the excellence of the arrangements.

It is hoped to stage another affair of a similar nature in connection with the Walla Walla campaign in the near future.

SMALL RIOT GREETSS WEDDING FILMS

Mad Scramble on Boat's Arrival at New York

New York, March 9.—A series of races, a small riot and a few skirmishes with revenue men yesterday marked the efforts of an army of motion picture company representatives and newspapermen to be first in getting pictures of Princess Mary's wedding off the steamship Olympic.

When the liner steamed to quarantine, eight tugs, bearing the newspaper and film men, dashed down the bay, and puffed alongside until she was cleared. Then there was a mad scramble on the tugs to the pier's ramps.

"Sorry," said the besieged pier. "Can't give them to you until the ship docks. It's order."

The storm of indignation that followed brought the Olympic's skipper from the cabin. He listened to the waiting for moment, then he ordered the purser to release pictures to all those holding orders and passing government requirements.

One newspaperman got his picture overboard. It was picked up by a tug, which had steamed about 300 yards when halted by a revenue cutter. After determining that the package had been cleared regularly the tug was permitted to proceed.

Others tossed pictures and films to tugs which hustled to shore, transferred their small cargoes to fast automobiles and their work done, nosed to their docks.

The race was declared to be a dead heat. All New York morning papers printed pictures of the wedding in early editions and motion picture houses flashed them on the screens.

BIRTHDAY PARTY.
A delightful birthday party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Curtis, Camosun Street, last evening in honor of the birthday of the hostess. The evening's entertainment opened with a whist drive, in which the first prizes were won by Mrs. Kate Sadoske and Mr. Art Russell, and the consolation by Mrs. B. W. Curtis and Mr. J. C. Curtis. A pin-cushion contest was won by Mrs. C. Gwyer and Mr. H. W. Curtis; "questions" by Mrs. MacDonald, and the advertisement contest by Mr. C. Gwyer.

A dainty supper was followed by music and games. The invited guests included Mrs. Kate Sadoske, sister of the hostess, who is leaving on Saturday for Hollywood, Cal.; Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Dopp, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Amerson, and Mrs. M. H. Barry, Mr. and Mrs. C. D. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. C. Gwyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Curtis, Mr. and Mrs. Art Russell, Mr. and Mrs. H. Seaton, Mrs. O. Smith, Misses Margaret and Evelyn Amerson, Eileen Elliott, Messrs. D. Callahan, Carl Foley, Robert Lennox, Hubert Timberley and Weston Baldwin.

Aged Women's Home.—Mrs. W. L. Clay the president, occupied the chair at the monthly meeting of the Ladies' Committee of the Aged Women's Home on Tuesday. The matron reported that all accommodation was taken up and all the inmates were in good health. Spring cleaning and replenishing has begun at the home. The committee in charge for March is Miss O'Brien, Mrs. Kinney and Mrs. Vincent. The inmates were entertained by the First Presbyterian Ladies' Aid with a delightful concert. The following donations have been gratefully received: Large box of wearing apparel, Mrs. A. O. Wheeler, Sidney; reading matter, Mrs. Wm. Grant and Mrs. G. R. Chisholm.

Y. P. Parliament.—A successful session of the Young People's "Mock Parliament" was held last night in the lecture hall of the First Presbyterian Church. Aubone Hoyle, who acted as lieutenant-governor, read the king's speech. A debate was commenced and adjourned until the next sitting of the house. A bill entitled "An Act to Prolong the Attendance at the Public and High Schools of the Province" was given its first reading. There was a good attendance of members.

Registered at the Starhorns Hotel are Miss Shields, Sturgeon; George Bartlett, Cowichan Station; Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Sheringham, Cobble Hill; Mr. and Mrs. E. Kennedy, Glenboro, Man.; Frank Villa, L. C. Cherry and E. Weiserfuss, Seattle.

GENEROSITY.
Nurse: "Why, Bobby, you selfish little boy! Why didn't you give your sister a piece of your apple?"
Bobby: "I gave her the seeds. She can plant 'em and have a whole orchard."—Kingston Standard.

BEAUTIFUL SPY'S FATE.

London, March 9.—The deportation from Newcastle-on-Tyne, England, of Miss Eva de Bournonville, one of the beautiful women engaged in Germany's espionage work during the war, recalls her trial and sentence to death at the Old Bailey in 1916—a sentence that was commuted to penal servitude for life.

A Swede of French extraction, she tried to ingratiate herself with British officers in the hope of learning the secrets of the intelligence staff. Her qualifications as a linguist and her knowledge of foreign countries would have made her, she considered, an ideal private secretary of the War Office, and it is said that she found more than one admirer to believe in her patriotism. But it did not take long to discover that the petite and pretty young woman's mission to England was one of treachery.

FRENCH COUNT WEDS AMERICAN ACTRESS

New York, March 9.—Donald Louis, Count d'Oyley, eldest son of the Marquis and Marchioness d'Oyley of Paris, and Miss Carolyn Arnold, an actress, were married yesterday in the chapel of the Municipal Building.

The actress, who is twenty-three, two years older than the bridegroom, was born in Los Angeles. Her real name was Carolyn Gerhardt Bussenius. She retired from the stage about a year ago. The count is in the engineering profession here. His mother was Miss Teresa Hainsworth, of London.

LAUNDERERS ENGAGE FABRIC SCIENTIST

Investigates Causes of "Ladders" in Stockings and Frayed Collars

London, March 9.—In a room off Holborn a young, studious scientist with spectacles is engaged with chemicals and microscope in research of a most delicate character—into underwear.

He is Mr. R. G. Parker, B.Sc., the "£1,000 a year scientist" appointed by the National Federation of Launderers to investigate all questions concerning laundry work, and his subjects are not objects with high-sounding Latin names, but simple everyday things, such as frayed collars and "laddered" stockings.

"Some of the least expensive collar fibres wash best and wear best," he said recently. "Fraying is often due to careless launders doubling the collars. Inferior starches are responsible also for the quality going, with the result that the collar is finished before half its life is spent."

"As for 'ladders' on silk stockings, I'm afraid the laundries can do no more than use the utmost care. The only alternative seems to be a woven material with its inevitable seam."

"Many of the mixtures now sent to the laundries show up very badly indeed under the microscope, which explains why they are so quickly destroyed in the wash."

"There are certain silk mixtures, used chiefly in the making of undergarments, which look perfectly beautiful when new. They are apparently all silk. But the silk is absolutely unsound. It is a material wearing surface, and is soon in a wretched condition. Some of these 'silks' I find have only 20 per cent. pure silk in them."

"Then again, some dyes are hopeless to wash. There is acid mordant in them, which, when it comes into contact with washing mixtures, begins a slow eating-away process, which destroys the material."

Lady Douglas Chapter.—The Lady Douglas Chapter, I. O. D. E., held its regular monthly meeting at headquarters yesterday afternoon, Mrs. R. B. McKicking in the chair. The usual routine of business was transacted and a new member welcomed. Final arrangements were made for the anniversary tea to be held at the ballroom of the Empress Hotel, Tuesday afternoon, March 14, from 3.30 to 6, and members and friends are invited to keep that date free.

PRINCESS BRIDE ON HONEYMOON TRIP

Royal Viscountess Overwhelmed by Crowd in London

London, March 9.—Princess Mary and Viscount Lascelles left Victoria Station on their way to Paris. They were almost overwhelmed by the salutation of a great crowd.

"Princess Mary and Viscountess Lascelles," as she is designated by the official court circular, wore an attractive moleskin coat and a blue hat. Women admirers, particularly pressed forward to catch a glimpse of the newly-married couple and almost broke through the police cordon. The noted honeymooners are on their way to Italy, and plan to spend an extended period at Florence.

GIRLS STRIKE FOR RIGHT TO SMOKE

A remarkable strike occurred at Leeds, England, recently, where 100 girls employed by Messrs. Hepworth & Sons, wholesale clothiers, threw up their employment to obtain the reinstatement of five girls discharged for smoking.

The firm enforce rigidly a rule that no person shall smoke on the premises. Five girls were found smoking and were instantly dismissed.

Their workmates immediately struck work and demanded their reinstatement. The strike ended, however, by the girls returning to work on the advice of their trade union, which will deal with the matter.

Marie, ma chère,
(Please note the French influence!)—I'm succumbing rapidly, don't you think? But it's terrible to labor through a long sentence and then have them answer you in English—n'est-ce pas?! I always grab instinctively for Jack's cane.

Goodness, this is a cold town. My skin needs twice as much attention as usual. However, with the aid of my old friend Campana's Italian Balm

I don't have to worry at all. I find it protects against any kind of weather, and it certainly keeps my face and hands wonderfully soft and white all the time.

Am revoir, ma petite.

AT THE END OF THE RAINBOW

By Nancibelle Hale

Another Fascinating Romance by the Author of "A Gamble in Beauty."

Keats Ramsey, manager of the automobile company with which she had been connected from beginning to end of her training, telephoned about a position. He told of a friend who was planning to start a trade journal for automobile accessories. "How would the idea of editing such a publication appeal to you?" he wanted to know. "With your personality and literary training added to general information about automobiles and sales, I believe you could put it over."

"But I have no experience," ventured Margaret. "Do you suppose they'll give me a chance at it when I tell them that?"

"I wouldn't be at all surprised—after what I told them about you. Now get on your horse and beat it over to 1835 Broadway. Tell Mr. Roth that you're the lady I was talking to him about."

"Oh, Mr. Ramsey, you're so kind. I believe I'd rather do that sort of work than anything in the world. How can I ever thank you?"

"Patriotic duty," grunted more than the words of our returning soldiers, you know."

With eyes shining in happy anticipation she started out to her apartment. "Why it was a lot better than marrying just any one! I suppose that's what was in store for me all the time. But if my hunch had told me it was a new job, I'd have probably gone ahead and married Edward just the same—and made him unhappy ever after. The word 'job' doesn't suggest anything as interesting as this. I'm surely a romantic nut. If romance fitted a person for a position as editor of a trade journal, I should be a whirlwind at it! What a blessing I bought my new 'trousseau'! I at least have some decent looking clothes in which to tackle the new job."

All of which shows that Margaret hadn't lost her buoyancy of spirits nor her ability to make a game out of life. It would take more than the horrors of war, more than hardships or privations to rob her of this gift. And her confidence in herself was still high. Previews to her going into business she believed in her faculty to entertain and the knack of wearing the right clothes and doing the right thing at the right time. Now she had added to that, resourcefulness in whatever place or position she might find herself. On the whole she had always been kind to her. In those first days in New York, her aunt had admired and approved of her, also told her so. John Baxter was never chary of telling her how much he admired her. Keats Ramsey had appreciated her work for him, as was proved by his taking this trouble to help her now. She felt it was a good world with a lot of good, helpful people in it. Why should she fail to please? Why should she be eternally grateful to you. If you need any of the check, please feel free to use whatever you wish.

THE SANDMAN STORY FOR TO-NIGHT

WHAT MR. BEE TOLD THE FLOWERS

All the garden flowers were gossiping one morning in the sunlight, the bees and the butterflies stopping now and then to listen, though, of course, the bees went right on working, but the butterflies didn't seem to mind. They were so busy with their own business on a flower telling what they saw in other gardens and along the roads.

"It must be lonely over by the garden wall," said a rose, looking at the place where Tiger Lily bloomed alone. "I wonder why Tiger Lily never seems to have any friends as we do."

"No one ever picks a blossom from her stalk, and I have noticed when any one is walking in the garden they are careful not to go too near her. I wonder why?"

All the flowers shook their heads. "Don't know," they all replied.

"Perhaps a butterfly can tell us," said a gay nasturtium that had climbed up in the world a little and noticed many things.

But the butterflies that heard only fluttered their wings and said they had never heard why Tiger Lily was so shunned; that none of their friends knew her.

And then it was that a passing bee who heard the gossip stopped to add its bit of gossip. "I can tell you why Tiger Lily is not popular," he said.

"Why, why?" came from all sides; "tell us, Mr. Bee," said the flowers so curious that some almost broke their stems leaning over that they might not miss a word.

"It happened at a ball given many years ago by Queen Flora, the Goddess of Flowers," he said; "all the flowers were there, of course, and such a gorgeous sight never was seen. "Where you there?" inquired an inquisitive butterfly. "No, my dear, I am not that old," said Mr. Bee with an angry buzz. "I said many years ago."

"As I was saying, all the flowers were there and Tiger Lily among the rest, and the Fairy Queen and her court happened to be passing by and stopped to look at the wonderful sight. Tiger Lily happened to be close by the place where the Queen stopped her carriage, and as Lily is tall the Queen flew up to sit in her blossom to get a good view.

Many jars filled with preserves.

"Tiger Lily did not know who it was, of course, but she had a bad temper, anyway. 'What do you mean by getting on my dress?' she said, shaking herself so hard that the Fairy Queen was tumbled on the ground, and if it had not been for her fairies, who all held out their hands, the Queen would have tumbled into a little pool of water, and that, of course, would have been a terrible thing to happen to a fairy."

"When the Queen was on her feet she flew up to Tiger Lily again with her little wand held outstretched toward Lily; 'Because you do not wish to have any one near you, I will give to you something that will make mortals shun you as long as you grow,' said the Queen.

"And from that night Tiger Lily has worn bits of brown on her dress that will make a stain on anything that fall upon, and that is the reason that every one shuns Tiger Lily; and now I must be off, for I have work to do aplenty."

All the flowers in the garden slowly shook their heads as they looked at Tiger Lily standing alone by the wall, all because on a Summer night long ago she was unkind to the Fairy Queen.

CYMRODORION SOCIETY

J. J. Jones Succeeds Alfred Petch as President.

At the annual meeting of the Victoria Cymrodorion Society, held last evening, the election of officers resulted in the following being chosen for the ensuing year: President, J. O. Jones; first vice-president, David Lewis; second vice-president, J. C. Williams; secretary-treasurer, John Jones (re-elected). The executive consists of Messrs. Jones, R. Jones, W. V. Jones, David Thomas and Mrs. David Thomas.

Alfred Petch, who organized the society twelve years ago, and was a most active president last year, was cordially thanked for his services. Mr. Petch was able to report that the society had now a membership of 91. He suggested a ladies' auxiliary in connection with the organization. Mr. Petch recommended that members should be asked to take a pledge on enrollment, said pledge to bind the member to allegiance to officers, obedience to the rules and regulations of the society, and loyalty to the aims and objects of the institution.

A publicity committee was chosen. As the train was about to start, a very stout man struggled into a carriage and sank into a seat, breathing heavily.

A small boy who sat opposite appeared to be fascinated. His ardent gaze eventually began to annoy the fat man, who demanded angrily: "Why are you staring at me?"

"Please, sir," replied the lad, "there's nowhere else to look."

"It's never touched me yet," he explained when they pointed out the risks.

That's the answer a good many people make when they hear that the drug element in tea and coffee often harms nerves and health. They say it's never touched them yet.

Sometimes they only think it hasn't.

Wakeful nights, drowsy days, headaches that keep coming more frequently—often are blamed on bad luck when the blame belongs on bad judgment in taking needless chances with harm.

Over on the safe side is Postum, a pure cereal beverage, delicious and satisfying—containing nothing that can harm nerves or digestion. Thousands who used to try their luck with tea or coffee are enthusiastic over having found safety and satisfaction in Postum.

It's worth your while to make the test with Postum for ten days. Postum is a delightful drink for any member of the family, at any meal.

Your grocer has both forms of Postum: Instant Postum (in tin) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

TASMANIA TO HAVE GREAT ZINC SMELTER

Electrolytic Zinc to Be Produced at Risdon Plant

A visit of inspection to the Risdon plant, Hobart, Tasmania, of the Electrolytic Zinc Company has been recently made by members of the board of directors. Hon. W. L. Baillieu, in a statement to-day, said this was the first visit of the board since the commencement of production on a large scale on November 22 last. In the annual report recently issued, and in a speech he made to the shareholders on December 20 last, the company's operation had been fully reviewed; but he desired to supplement this review, as a result of the impressions gained during the present visit of inspection, and to continue, "was started practically on the scheduled date, and productive operations have continued steadily and successfully from the commencement. We have spent three days in a careful inspection of the plant, in general and in detail; and have concluded on the whole that the general stability of the plant, and with the smooth progress of productive operations. The plant will be in operation by August, with a production output of 120 tons of zinc daily."

Huge Output This Year. "The commencement of large productive operations at Risdon constitutes a landmark in the development of the metal industry of the Commonwealth. It will be recalled that the war found the Empire without adequate resources for the production of zinc, a metal of supreme importance for the arts of peace, but absolutely essential for the prosecution of modern war. The production of zinc at Risdon renders the Empire more independent of foreign sources of supply; and with the lead smelters of Port Pirie ensures that the maximum of the Australian zinc and lead ores are treated and refined for local consumption and export by Australian works established and controlled by Australian capital and enterprise. The capital—amounting to approximately £2,500,000—has been provided from time to time as required over the past five years, without (so far) any return to the shareholders. I am satisfied that they are now within measurable distance of reward for their patience and courage."

Subsidiary Enterprises. "There are certain important subsidiary enterprises which follow naturally in the way of the zinc industry, and which will be developed as soon as the general industrial and economic conditions justify. It is proposed to issue in future a four-weekly statement, giving the tonnage of zinc and silver-lead produced for shipment to Port Pirie for smelting and refining. The completion of the construction programme in accordance with the time schedule, together with the successful inauguration of productive operations, is evidence of careful, patient, and efficient supervision by the general manager and staff, and of the active co-operation of all employees of the company. The relations between the company and all its employees have been consistently good. We believe that the mutual confidence which has grown up at Risdon, and will ensure a continuance and a still further improvement in this important department of our industry."

"I'm sorry, Mr. Timpany," said the leader of the brass band, to the bass drummer, "but we shall have to discontinue with your services." "Why?" "You ask me why? A man who has grown so fat that he can no longer fit the middle of the drum asks me why?"

EGGS AND BUTTER

PROVIDE FEATURE

Trading To-day Produce

Starting Effect on Retail Market

At present the dairy market is being steadily drawn into prominence by irregularity of supply. It is the opinion of a leading retailer of this city that a tremendous slump in egg prices is taking place, while the price of butter is expected to mount to a high rate. Eggs are plentiful, as shown by the consign-ments sent to the city by up-island producers, and although Washington eggs are on the market they are far in the background compared with the local product. Vancouver is selling the Wash-ington products more extensively than day, and are easing off in price. The quotations offer a new low figure for the time of the season. New laid eggs are selling 32 cents for the dozen, while the pullet variety demands the lowest price of the stock, consumers picking them up at 28 cents on the dozen.

The butter situation is indeed tighten-ing up. Prices in the New Zealand prod-uct are being driven up by a 38 cent quotation and within an hour had jumped two cents. Local retail estab-lishments do not look at the expected shipment of New Zealand butter, which is expected to arrive over the week-end with 5,000 boxes in an optimistic light. Vegetables are feeling the effect of a quiet market, no changes in the quota-tions being registered. Lettuce, which has been selling consistently on the mar-ket is arriving in smaller quantities now, and in fact an announcement of scarcity was made at some of the down town stores to-day. The reason for this short-age is due to the fact that local growers are making room for early tomatoes, and are cutting down on the space allot-ted for lettuce. Radishes imported from California are selling on the market but are of a poor quality, and are finding little or no market.

Feed prices are being held on the mar-ket, with numerous fluctuations in barley, oats and hay.

Keeping Your Furs Beautiful

After the wear of the past few months in dusty and damp weather, your furs have naturally gathered a considerable amount of dust; these fine particles work down into the fine soft under fur, and tend to destroy the lustre and beauty of the fur. Therefore it is advisable to have your furs thoroughly cleaned and any minor repairs made now, so that they will be ready for Spring wear. We have every facility for doing your fur work thoroughly, and at a reasonable price.

CANADA AND STATES HOCKEY TEAMS PLAY FOR CHAMPIONSHIP

Arrangements Being Made for Allan Cup Winners to Meet Best American Team

Two Games Would Be Played in Toronto and Two in Either Boston or Pittsburgh

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 9.—Preliminary arrangements are being made for an international hockey championship series between the champion teams of Canada and the United States. R. D. Schooley, secretary of the United States Amateur Hockey Association, said here last night.

Under plans discussed, he said, the winning teams of Canada and the United States would contest for the Willis International Trophy after the season in the respective associations close on March 20.

Two games would be played in the United States, at Pittsburgh or Boston and two in the Toronto Arena.

FOUREX GIVEN BAD BEATING BY REGINA

Calgary Challengers For Allan Cup Lost 10-3, Score of Round Being 16-5

Regina, March 9.—Regina Victorias advanced another step in their quest for Dominion amateur honors by defeating the Calgary Fourx here last night 10-3 in the final game of the two-game series. As they won on Monday, 6-2, they captured the round 16-5.

The local team will leave for the East on Sunday, where they meet the champions of the Brandon-Fort William series.

Melville in Finals.

Saskatoon, March 9.—Melville advanced to the final round of the play-off for the hockey championship of Northern Saskatchewan here last night, when they eliminated Humboldt in the semi-finals by a score of 8 to 6 in 20 minutes overtime.

Toronto, March 9.—In a series of N.O.H.A. champions, defeated Kitchener, intermediate O.H.A. champions 3-4 last night, and will meet Cranston, senior O.H.A. champions, in two games on Friday and Monday next in the Allan Cup elimination games.

Junior Play-Off.

Montreal, March 9.—The winners of the Lower Canada-Loyola Junior hockey play-off will play the O.H.A. junior winners at Toronto on March 14. The winner of this game will play at Port William on March 17, and the winners of this game will play at Winnipeg, March 20 for the John Ross Robertson Memorial trophy.

Ottawas Win League

BY TRIO OF POINTS

Hamilton Defeated Senators in Final Game of Season; St. Pats in Second Place

Ottawa, March 9.—The final standing of the National Hockey League is as follows:

Ottawa ..... 14 6 2 Pts.
St. Patrick's ..... 13 9 1 27
Canadiens ..... 12 11 1 25
Hamilton ..... 6 18 0 12

Ottawa, March 9.—Hamilton Tigers defeated Ottawa Senators here last night 7-2, in the last scheduled National Hockey League fixture and well deserved the victory. The Ottawas never were seriously in the play and in fact took a far more casual interest in the result than did the spectators.

Bike Marathoners

CONTINUE MERRY GO

Two Teams Are Tied for First Place; One Rider Falls and Ruptures Appendix

New York, March 9.—The eighth hour of the Spring six-day bike race at Madison Square Garden to-day found Alfred Grenda and R. J. McNamara, Australian-American combination, and Maurice Brocco and Charles De Ruyter, the Italian-Belgian team still leading the field. They had pedalled 1,408 miles and four laps, one lap ahead of 12 other teams. The Kopsky-Erskine combination trailed two laps to the rear.

The record for this hour is 1,604 miles and six laps, made by Goulet-Grenda in 1914.

Caesar Dewarts, of Newark, N. J., fell from his wheel this morning and was forced to withdraw with a ruptured appendix. He was taken to a hospital. He was paired with Persynn.

Regina Proves Real Surprise Packet Vancouver Drops First Game By 2-1

WILL OPERATE ON FRENCH CHAMPION

Band of Eleven Energetic Youngsters Back-Checked Millionaires to Death; Regina Had Plenty of Good Substitutes; MacKay, Adams and Skinner Were All Off Color; Neither Lehman Nor Laird Had Great Deal to Do In Goal; Rink Was Packed to Roof

By Times Sporting Editor.

Vancouver, B.C., March 9.—Regina turned the trick. Conceded little more than an outside chance of tumbling the Millionaires, the prairie champions hopped on to the ice at the Arena last night and set such a dizzy pace over the entire sixty minutes that they were crowned with the laurels, winning by 2 to 1.

Regina deserved the game on the play. Vancouver looked to be having an off night as neither Jack Adams nor Mickey MacKay showed much more than their uniforms and Alf Skinner did not find his shooting eye until the game was nearly over. Skinner exhibition tour three years ago, was the greatest bundle of back-checking energy. He followed the puck about the ice as if it were a twenty-dollar gold-piece and whether it was big Art Duncan or little Ernie Parkes he went into them and harried them like a terrier.

A Big Surprise.

There is no doubt but that the Millionaires got a big surprise in the first ten minutes of the game and they had a job getting settled. Like most of the fans, they had an idea that the competition Regina would offer would not be over-strong when the visitors jumped on the first three minutes and refused to leave any openings through which their opponents might slip to even up the Millionaires for five goals.

But it simply wasn't on the calendar for the Millionaires to win. Not until the last ten minutes of the game did they wake up to the seriousness of the task which confronted them. In the closing moments of the game the Millionaires got a powerful extra weight of the Millionaires' boys checked their men to a standstill. There was a total absence of rough play and the two penalties which Regina collected were for minor offences.

A Great Noise.

The Arena was packed to the roof when the Millionaires took the puck over the waiting sticks of Adams and Irvin. There was a momentary lull and a second later when the Vancouver line broke through the Regina defence, the Millionaires' boys played the Regina line like a sledge hammer.

There is no doubt but that the Millionaires got a big surprise in the first ten minutes of the game and they had a job getting settled. Like most of the fans, they had an idea that the competition Regina would offer would not be over-strong when the visitors jumped on the first three minutes and refused to leave any openings through which their opponents might slip to even up the Millionaires for five goals.

But it simply wasn't on the calendar for the Millionaires to win. Not until the last ten minutes of the game did they wake up to the seriousness of the task which confronted them. In the closing moments of the game the Millionaires got a powerful extra weight of the Millionaires' boys checked their men to a standstill. There was a total absence of rough play and the two penalties which Regina collected were for minor offences.

A Great Noise.

The Arena was packed to the roof when the Millionaires took the puck over the waiting sticks of Adams and Irvin. There was a momentary lull and a second later when the Vancouver line broke through the Regina defence, the Millionaires' boys played the Regina line like a sledge hammer.

Whole Town to Turn Out and Welcome Capitals Back on Saturday Morning

Arena Sold Out For Final Game; Tickets Gobbled Up Before Being Put on Sale

Regina, March 9.—Saturday's game at the stadium here between the Regina Capitals and the Vancouver Millionaires will be started at 8:30 sharp with Referee Poulin in charge. The match will be under Western Canada League rules, six men each side. Not more than nine men can be used in any contest.

Standing room is at a premium. As a matter of fact all the reserved seats had been sold before they were opened for public sale. Fans in their eagerness to be assured of getting inside the rink paid down their money before the tickets were put on sale.

Never in the history of Regina has hockey interest been so high as is the case to-day. A mammoth gathering will be ready to meet the Capitals when they arrive Saturday morning, and the Millionaires who are on the same train will be assured a rousing welcome, too.

It Was a Jolt Alright.

Vancouver, March 9.—Regina Capitals, champions of the prairie hockey circuit, who pranced into town yesterday morning and upset the odds in the Saskatchewan dog derby which finished here to-day. Maurice made the distance of 135 miles in 18 hours and 59 minutes, followed 31 minutes later by Celestin Derogher. Just before the finish a wire was received from Green Lake giving the order and time of arrival of the teams there last night. The dogs of both the winning teams finished in good condition shortly after 10 o'clock.

All five teams were in the lead at Green Lake and arrived there within 16 minutes of each other.

CAPITOL

A camera feat that has few, if any, parallels in motion pictures was that of Arthur Miller, who photographed the final scenes in "Forever," Geo. Fitzmaurice's fine Paramount production, starring Elsie Ferguson and Wallace Reid, which will be shown at the Capitol Theatre all this week. Double exposures are common enough, and Miller made more than four hundred of them in the dream scenes of this picture, but, in addition, he made several triple exposures. They were the first ever made by Paramount. The triple exposures were of a stage on which is being enacted the last act of Shakespeare's "Othello." The set was at the extreme end of the upper stage of the Long Island studio, one hundred and thirty feet away. Thirty-eight feet above the floor, on a trestle, Miller stood with his camera. Pillars were hung from the files and a miniature proscenium framed the scene. The scene was shot first from the floor and then the same film was double-exposed from the vantage point where Miller was perched. Triple exposures, in this instance, is only a figure of speech, for in order to get the three impressions on the same film it was necessary for Miller to run his film through the camera twenty-one times.

VARIETY

During the filming of Benjamin B. Hampton's big Zane Grey production, "Riders of the Dawn," showing at the Variety to-day and balance of week, a W. W. Hodgkinson release, Roy Stewart had occasion to bare his muscular forearms. Exclamations went around. Those forearms, which had won for him boxing and rowing championships and were kept constantly in trim, were worth seeing. "But they're so hairy!" protested a lady visitor to the studio. "Why doesn't he use some good remover?" Five minutes later Mr. Stewart did the scene where he rescues Claire Adams from a burning hayloft, in which she lies helpless, bound and gagged. In this dangerous stunt his arms were badly singed, and as he remarked while holding them out for first aid: "I don't need any hair remover on them now!"

ROYAL VICTORIA

Comedy is so abundant in "Molly O," the Associated First National Pictures attraction which is the current release at the Royal Victoria Theatre, that the fact should not be lost sight of that primarily the production is one of a very dramatic and thrilling story. It is the story of a gritty girl's fight for a place in the world, and a happiness that she could never attain if she permitted environment to overcome her.

Mack Sennett's name has become almost synonymous with hilarious comedy, so that the dramatic quality of the production comes as a revelation to those who do not recall that he was the producer of "Mickey," the picture which several years ago, with Mabel Normand as the star, established a precedent for success which has never since been equaled.

Molly O, the heroine, is too jolly a character to be able to keep genuine fun out of her life in spite of her extremely pathetic position. Nevertheless, she is a character of such depth and interest that she is a real person.

DOMINION

Gloria Swanson has scored another great success in "Her Husband's Trademark," which will be the feature attraction at the Dominion Theatre all this week. The story is as follows: James Berkeley has just enough income to dress his wife gorgeously so that he might give the impression of prosperity. When Allan Franklin, an old friend of hers, comes to New York just after coming from the possession of a valuable mine, Berkeley decides to trim him, using his wife as bait. He forgets that they may fall in love with each other. All are trapped in the Mexican residence of Allan's by a gang of outlaws, and Berkeley attempts to escape, leaving his wife at the mercy of the Mexicans, but he is killed. Allan and Mrs. Berkeley escape.

COMING TO DOMINION.
If someone tells you that there are white elephants, don't you believe it. The animal doesn't exist, according to Mrs. Florence Meehan, famous Oriental expert who aided Cecil B. De Mille in the production of "Fool's Paradise," the producer's latest Paramount picture which comes to the Dominion Theatre next week. She asserts the so-called white elephant is a mottled gray, with albino eyes and white spots on the ears. It is these spots, according to Mrs. Meehan, which renders this species of elephant sacred in Siam, the king of which country has a dozen or more of them in his stables. Don't look for a white elephant in "Fool's Paradise," says Mrs. Meehan, "for if you do, you're doomed to be disappointed." The principal roles in "Fool's Paradise" are portrayed by Dorothy Dalton, Mildred Harris, Conrad Nagel, Theodore Kosloff, John Davidson and Julia Faye.

Mary Pickford has finally decided on her next production. It is to be "Freaks of the Storm Country," the story in which she starred seven years ago for Famous Players and in which she won the special niche in the hearts of the photoplaying public that has been hers ever since.

Need Attention in March or Face May Stay Covered.

Now is the time to take special care of the complexion if you wish to look well the rest of the year. The March winds have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, may stay all Summer unless removed. Now is the time to use Othine—double strength. This preparation for the removal of freckles is usually so successful that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails. Get an ounce of Othine—double strength, and even a few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the smaller freckles even vanishing entirely. (Adv.)

GODOWSKY GLAD TO RETURN HERE

Famous Pianist Praises Mrs. Huntley Green

For the third time in recent years the great master pianist, Leopold Godowsky, has reached this city. To say that he admires Victoria is saying little. Of all places this city seems to arrest his admiration the most.

In a talk with The Times he said yesterday, "I am immensely fond of Victoria, and always consider my recitals here the most enjoyable of any of my seasons bookings. Then again you have such an admirable pianist living among you, and I assure you I have looked forward to having the assistance of Mrs. Gertrude Huntley Green, who I consider is the most remarkable of Canadian pianists, with the keenest delight. In the duet for two pianos of my contrapuntal paraphrase, "Invitation to the Dance," (Weber), the performance here of my arrangement will be a great pleasure to me, and I have longed for the opportunity of playing this work with her for considerable time. I am able to tell the people of this community that the inclusion of my paraphrase in Friday evening's programme will give this city the distinction of the first performance of what I consider is a very beautiful composition. I admire your city so much that I have especially brought the above about, and I am sure Mrs. Green at the first piano it fills me with delight. I shall enjoy the occasion more, perhaps, than any one else present."

A Hard Worker.
Mr. Godowsky works very hard during his tours. Half an hour after his arrival yesterday afternoon he had commenced his first practice, and he has a piano in his suite of rooms, and two Knabe grand pianos at the Empress Hotel, loaned him by the Willis Piano Company.

Leopold Godowsky more and more gains the respect and admiration of every one who meets him. No one can truly know the master without both liking and respecting him, and his modesty is wonderful for one of the greatest musicians of the present day. He is not only a great artist, but is a man of fine and high character. A man great of soul, it is no wonder that everybody who knows him loves his art, and loves the master. To spend an hour with Godowsky is a real pleasure, indeed. He radiates with brightness, and his intellectuality is unbounded and wonderful. His recital here to-morrow is sure to be a notable one.

FRUIT TREES SUFFER FROM LONG WINTER

Orchardists are finding that this long, steady winter, with ground mostly snow-covered, has done much to their trees. Mice have been long under cover, and as is usual in such winters, have sustained themselves on green bark.

Many trees have been attacked, some completely girdled, and where this ringing has continued hitherto, the tree has been doomed. But such girdled trees may now be saved by a little careful work. "Bridge-grafting" is as successful as skin grafting in modern surgery. Small twigs or "scion" wood, clean, straight stems of last year's growth, are cut at once, while dormant, and are kept cool and moist to retard growth until grafted. The girdled tree is cleaned as soon as the snow goes and the bark edges trimmed. The scion wood should be tar-painted to keep out decay, care being taken that the tar does not touch the bark-edges. The twigs for "bridging" are cut about two inches longer than the gap in the bark after trimming. This extra inch top and bottom is sharpened to a bevel point and is inserted in a slit cut in the bark, or tucked under the edge. As many bridges are placed as can be handled conveniently, and the more joinings there are, the quicker the healing. The whole work is then waxed over and wrapped. Where the inner bark (the fibrous coating that carries the sap) has not been covered, this should be covered over carefully to exclude air, and a union will grow naturally, soon attaining an outer coat of bark. Where this "cambium" has not been damaged, but only the outside bark eaten, it may be sufficient to bury the damaged part by throwing a mound of earth about the trunk, keeping it there until the new "skin" is formed.

Red Pepper, Rub takes the "ouch" from sore, stiff, aching joints. It cannot hurt you, and it certainly stops that old rheumatism torture at once. When you are suffering so you can hardly get around, just try Red Pepper Rub and you will have the quick relief known. Nothing has such concentrated, penetrating heat as red peppers. Just as soon as you apply Red Pepper Rub you will feel the tingling heat. In three minutes it warms the sore spot through and through. Pain and soreness are gone.

Ask any good druggist for a jar of Rowles Red Pepper Rub. Be sure to get the genuine, with the name Rowles on each package. (Adv.)

FANCY THAT!

If straightened out, an ounce of spider's web would extend three hundred and fifty miles. The New Testament was first divided into verses by Robert Stevens, a French printer, in 1551. Coal used for pumping London's water supply amounts in normal times to 250,000 tons a year. Graphite from which pencils are made is imported from Mexico and Ceylon.

Instead of supplying towels in their public washrooms, certain American hotels have installed machines whereby hot air is blown through tubes and played on the hands and face, drying them immediately. Ants are credited with an instinctive knowledge of the general weather for a whole season. When they are observed in the Summer enlarging and strengthening their dwellings, it is said to be a sign of an early and cold winter.

Most club secretaries suffer many grievous wrongs, but this particular one had been having a regular day of it when a new member came up to him and inquired where he could put his hat and coat a year. "Oh, hang it on me!" snapped the long-suffering official. "I'm only the secretary."—Tit-Bits.

CRITICS DIFFER ON SHAW'S OFFERING

"Back to Methuselah" is Remarkable Example of Dramatic Art

By Ben Deacon, Canadian Press Correspondent.
New York, March 9.—The dramatic critics have dutifully listened to the first instalment of Shaw's "Back to Methuselah," and are now convalescing. Latest reports are that their fever is abating and complete recovery is hoped for in the course of time.

Like "The Perils of Pauline," the new Shaw play comes in serial form. You require a commutation-ticket, each section of which carries you through a thousand miles of talk. It is being uttered by players of the Theatre Guild. It has to be uttered. It cannot be acted for it contains no action other than the occasional changing of chairs by the performers. Nevertheless the stage version has interest—in spots.

The first two episodes—or acts—whatever you like to call them, "In the Beginning," and "The Gospel of the Brothers Barnabas," are given in this initial instalment. Evidently much labor and thought was devoted by the Theatre Guild to the task of giving the latest Shaw work its first articulate exposition. The result unquestionably is an artistic production. The only question that can be asked is whether the doggone thing is worth it. The general verdict appears to be that the Guild has done the best that could possibly be done with a philosophic eruption which is well enough in print, but is entirely unsuited to the stage.

The scene "In the Beginning," as possibly you are well aware, is laid in the Garden of Eden. The scenic representation of the Dawn of Creation is effective. The backgrounds, the work of Lee Simonson, a scenic artist of note, combine fine imagination with no little beauty and here and there a touch of fantasy. The Serpent, a huge mass of glistening green coils, is upon a throne of rough rock. As it speaks, its jaws move, but jaws and words do not always synchronize. Margaret Wycherley, concealed within the big reptile, delivers the lines in the "strange, seductive, musical whisper" which Shaw's admonitions call for, or as near to it as may be. The second scene, an oasis in Mesopotamia is also pictorially expert. "The Gospel of the Brothers Barnabas," you probably remember, contains a satirical representation of Messrs. Lloyd George and Asquith. A P. Kay's portrayal of the British Prime Minister is the outstanding feature of this episode, and a histrionic feat that at times seems to make the thing almost worth while. His make-up is very nearly perfect and he depicts most cleverly many of the little mannerisms of attitude and gesture with which we have come to associate Lloyd George. Claude King is the Asquith character. He is not so perfect in physical resemblance, but he makes the role second only to that of the burlesque Lloyd George in interest.

Several of the critics display enthusiasm. The majority, however, find it only occasionally interesting. Louis De Foe calls it "an intellectual endurance contest." The first audience, he reports, grew restive "under the influence of this acreage of actionless talk." The length of it seemed interminable. "Admitting the mental pyrotechnics that flash in this play," he adds, "the effect of the edum which it must exert upon all but the confirmed champions of Shaw is difficult to describe. Last night was almost an hour too much of it for endurance."

Alexander Woolcott thinks the Theatre Guild is doing—brilliantly—a work that, all in all, is worth doing, because it contains in its vast miscellany some searching and beautiful things." He adds that this opinion is set down by one "who was inexpressibly bored by the feeble and repulsive and octagonal garrulity of this new play's interminable second act."

But perhaps the most pertinent remark comes from Alan Dale. "I like to think of Bernard Shaw, who has a gorgeous sense of humor," says Dale, "sitting comfortably at home in London and laughing himself sick at the idea of a lot of poor simple creatures listening to interminable arguments pro and con on every conceivable subject just because they think they are doing the right thing."

New York is full of people who will think that suffering the Shaw play is the right thing. In the first place, it is presented for the first time on any stage, which counts in New York. Then, too, it is a freak thing, which counts still more. Submitting one's self to boredom may be regarded as an excellent form of penance. Lastly, the seats in the Garrick Theatre are comfortable and one may sleep. It is altogether likely that the Theatre Guild will find a sufficient number of commuters to make the long journey a financial success.

From all sides comes reports of the remarkable results secured through Ironized Yeast. The following unsolicited letter is typical of the hundreds we are receiving. "I received your trial package of Ironized Yeast last week, and I cannot tell you how much better I feel. Before I finished the trial I knew it was helping me, so I purchased a full package. "My husband is just delighted with the improvement in me. He tells me I have more life now than I ever had. ## SORES SPREAD ALL OVER FACES AND BODIES

Mrs. Howard Houlette, Waskatenau, Sask., writes: "I wish to tell you of the benefit we have received by using your valuable medicine, Burdock Blood Bitters."

My children started to break out on their faces in small white pimples which kept getting larger each day. Pus would form under the scales and they would come off, and each time the sores would be larger; some were as large as a twenty-five cent piece, and would spread all over their bodies. I was nearly in despair and sent to the village for a bottle of good blood medicine. The druggist sent me a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters when I commenced giving them at once.

In about ten days I saw an improvement and they grew steadily better each day, and in one month the sores had all disappeared. All blood and skin diseases are caused by bad blood, and to get it pure and keep it pure you must remove every trace of the impure and morbid matter from the system by a blood cleansing medicine such as a remedy that has been on the market for the past forty-five years, and one without an equal for all diseases and disorders of the blood. Manufactured only by The T. Millburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

"Yes," said the American who stood on the deck of a liner leaving Liverpool, "England is the most awful place for tips I ever struck. I've been hooked at every turn for the last month, but," he added sagely, "the last trip was a bit more than I could stand." "What was that?" inquired the man to whom the remark was addressed. "Well," said the tourist, "I had tipped every man from the hotel waiter down to the man who gunned the wrong labels on my luggage, and I went into the waiting-room on the landing-stage to wash my hands of everything English, and what do you think stared me in the face when I was finished but 'Please tip the basin.' I'm hanged if I did!"

Eugene O'Brien will be seen as a Canadian mounted policeman in his next.

The Three Day Test
—How It Showed Me The Way To New Life And Tireless Energy

THOUSANDS of men and women—once thin, exhausted and run-down—now know the way to new life and sparkling vitality. And this way is now offered you entirely free, to try. Send for the amazing Three Day Test of Ironized Yeast. Then get ready for a surprise!

Free

Mail coupon below for the amazing Three Day FREE Trial Treatment of Ironized Yeast. Take these pleasant-tasting tablets—two with each meal. Then watch the results.

For its richness in vitamins. For cheaper grades will not bring the desired results.

Our blood needs iron to make it rich, red and strong. But ordinary iron is apt to upset the stomach. Therefore, this specially cultured yeast is ironized, or treated through a scientific process with a special form of organic iron, similar to the iron found in spinach, thus making it easily assimilable by the system.

When yeast is ironized in this manner the results in practically every case are secured in just half the usual time! Is it any wonder that Ironized Yeast stands in a class by itself, and is now recognised by thousands as the perfect vitamin tonic treatment?

Make This Test Today

Mail the coupon below for your Trial Treatment of Ironized Yeast. Take these pleasant-tasting tablets—two with each meal. Then watch the results.

Note the almost immediate increase in energy, appetite and vitality. See how quickly your complexion begins to clear and freshen. And as for increasing weight, many thin folks report gaining five pounds and more on the very first package of Ironized Yeast.

You simply will not believe what a wonderful improvement Ironized Yeast can bring in you until you try it. Go to your druggist—or mail the coupon today!
